E – Tendering – Tender and Contract Document for Works, Dec. 2016

Correction Slip No.3 (Superseding Correction Slip No.2)

In sub-clause 2.4(a) of Notice Inviting Tenders and Instructions to Tenderers and also in Annexure II thereto, the word 'VAT' may be deleted.

Further, the existing sub-clause 17.4 of Notice Inviting Tenders and Instructions to Tenderers may be deleted and replaced with the following:

17.4 Price/rates quoted by the bidder in respect of the tender shall be after considering all input credits and inclusive of all taxes and cess etc., other than GST on Contract Price. The GST leviable on Contract Price shall be paid in addition to the Contract Price as mentioned below.

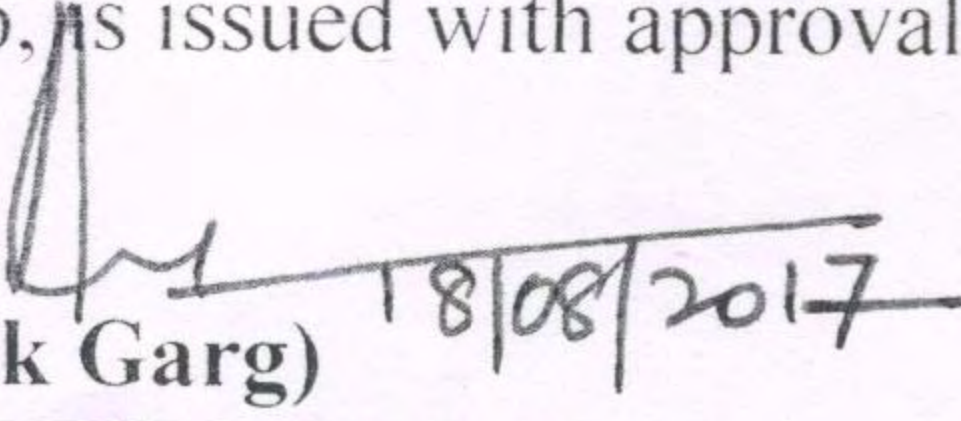

In the bill for the works done, the contractor shall charge GST separately and shall pay to the Government within due date prescribed under the respective Act.

GST will be paid to the contractor by the Engineer-in-Charge after satisfying that it has been actually and genuinely paid to the Government as per the applicable GST rate on submission of taxable invoices and after the same is reflected in the name of the Client/Beneficiary. Regarding payment of GST to the contractor, the decision of Engineer-in-Charge shall be binding on the contractor.
